

David knew what God's will was by keeping God's law within his heart and before his eyes.

According to the Merriam Webster dictionary, the word WILL means to express desire, choice, willingness, consent to wish or desire. Jeremiah 29:11, Hebrews 13:20-21, Psalm 119:105, James 1:5,

Many times, when it comes to making more serious decisions such as picking a spouse, choosing a job, or deciding what career to go into we get stuck at knowing whether it's the will of God or not. Proverbs 3:5

When we put priority on God's word and have a constant hunger for His word and knowing His ways, God will lead us through the Holy Spirit to His will through our thoughts and desires. Psalm 1:1-6, Philippians 2:13

When your mind has been renewed with the word of God, you get to a point where what He wants is what you want, His desires are your desires, and they are good, pleasing, and perfect to you and Him. Psalms 37:4-5 Romans 2:1,

At this stage what you desire and ask for will be granted because you are in God's will and your heart is in sync with his. (John 15:7)

When we are seeking God's will we want to know if something is his desire for us and if we have his consent to go ahead with it. James 4:15

Having established that, let's examine some of the very obvious will(s) of God stated very clearly in the Bible; 1 Timothy 2:3-4, 1 Thessalonians 5:8, 1 Thessalonians 4:3-5, 1 Peter 2:15, Ephesians 5:17-18,
